

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 291

Temporarily Amending for Anchorage Only the Rate of Payment and Length of Service for Petit Jurors.

IT IS ORDERED:

The provisions of Administrative Rule 17(a) governing the rate of payment and length of service of petit jurors is suspended with respect to petit jurors summoned to serve in the Superior and District Court in Anchorage for the period commencing January 3, 1978, and ending March 31, 1978. During this period the following shall apply:

(1) Length of Service. A petit juror who is actually required to report to the court but is not selected to serve on a trial or inquest panel shall have completed his service after reporting once to the court for jury selection and upon being excused by the court or the jury clerk. A petit juror who is selected for service on a trial or inquest panel shall have completed his service at the conclusion of that trial or inquest.

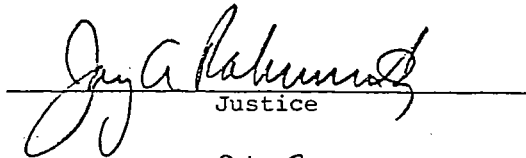

(2) Payment. A petit juror who actually reports to the court but is not selected to serve on a trial or inquest panel shall be paid $3.00 for the first day of attendance. For any subsequent service he shall be paid at the rate of $20.00 for each full day of attendance and $10.00 for a half day or less. A petit juror who is selected to serve on a trial or inquest panel shall be paid at the rate of $20.00 for every full day and $10.00 for a half day or less spent as a member of the venire and as a member of a panel.
