

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 431

Amending Alaska Bar Rule 2,
Section 3, Relating to
Adjunct Membership in the Alaska Bar Association.

IT IS ORDERED:

Section 3 of Rule 2, Alaska Bar Rules, is rescinded and repromulgated to read:

Section 3. (a) An applicant who meets the requirements of (a) through (d) of Section 1 of this rule, who has established domicile in the State of Alaska, who meets the requirements of paragraph (a) of Section 2 of this rule, and who is admitted to the practice of law before the highest court of another state, a territory, or the District of Columbia, may apply to the Board for admission to the Alaska Bar Association as an adjunct member. In such application, in addition to providing such other information as the Board may require, the applicant shall certify that he or she:

(1) (aa) In the case of attorneys employed by the federal government, will not appear in any proceeding except on behalf of the federal government;

(bb) In the case of all other persons, will not appear as an attorney or counselor in any action or proceeding in the courts of the State of Alaska;

(2) Will not offer legal services or advice to persons in the state of Alaska or hold himself out to be so engaged or authorized with or without compensation;

(3) Is a full-time employee of a company, an association, a corporation, or an agency of the federal government, employed to render legal services or legal advice to his employer, and that his employer is not engaged in the business of selling or furnishing legal services or legal advice to others;

(4) Has not been suspended or disbarred by any bar association.

(b) Any person admitted to the Alaska Bar Association as an adjunct member submits to the jurisdiction of the Association for the purpose of such disciplinary proceedings as the Association shall determine to institute against him. No person admitted to the Alaska Bar Association as an adjunct member shall retain such status if he or she ceases to comply with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, or if any of the statements in the certification submitted with the application ceases to be correct.
