2. That a Final Order be entered that establishes Plaintiff as legal/biological father of the minor child(ren) in question;

4. That the Final Order relieve Defendant 2 of any ongoing child support obligation from the date I filed this Complaint,

5. That arrearages be modified as allowed by law.

NOTE: The general rule is that child support cannot be retroactively modified. This means the court cannot go back and change past due child support amounts. However, depending on how the original obligation was established, the court may be able to set aside some or all of the arrearages. This is a complicated area of law and you should consult an attorney to find out whether something can be done in your case.

6. That custody, visitation and child support with Plaintiff be ordered as requested.
