- Case Description Form, CIV-125S (Required)
- Information Sheet, DR-314 (Required)
- Summons, CIV-100 (Required. You cannot get this off of the Internet; you must get it from your local court or through calling the Family Law Helpline.)

- Property & Debt Worksheet, SHC-1000 Word | PDF (Use if you think the other side may not Answer.)

2. How do I fill out the Complaint?

The Complaint asks for information about you, your spouse and any marital property or debt. Remember: Use BLACK ink for the form, but sign in BLUE ink. Print your name, address and phone number in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. In the caption, print your name above "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name above "Defendant."

If you think there is any chance the other side will not respond to your paperwork and you will be requesting a default, complete the Property & Debt Worksheet, SHC-1000 Word | PDF, explaining in detail how you want the court to divide the marital property and debt.

3. How do I fill out the Case Description Form?

4. How do I fill out the Information Sheet?

Fill in all of the information requested in # 1, 2 and 3. Provide complete information for yourself and your spouse if you know it. Sign your name and date. When you file the papers to start your case, the clerk will give you a case number that you should fill in at the top with the court location where you are filing.

5. How do I fill out the Summons?

Fill-in all blank spaces in the top half of the form, except the case number. When you file your papers, the clerk completes the lower half, which assigns your judge and case number.

6. How do I fill out the Certificate of Divorce?

This is the form that goes to the Bureau of Vital Statistics after the divorce is final. Answer questions 11-30, without making any cross-outs or corrections. The court will complete the rest after the divorce. If you do not know the information for your spouse, leave it blank and let him/her provide it to the court.

7. What do I do with the completed forms?

Please see How to Start a Contested Case, SHC-181 Word | PDF.
