

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA
FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT FAIRBANKS

)
	Plaintiff,)	PRESIDING JUDGE'S
)	STANDING PRELIMINARY
vs.)	INJUNCTION AND ORDER IN
)	DIVORCE CASES WITH CHILDREN
)	AND CHILD CUSTODY CASES Defendant.)
			4FA-_____ CI

I. JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENT. Your case has been assigned to Judge: _____ and referred to Master: _____. Per Alaska Civil Rule 65(e), a Standing Preliminary Injunction and Order is issued as follows:

II. INJUNCTION. Subject to future court orders issued in this case, all parties in this action must not:

1. Remove any child who is the subject of this action from the State of Alaska without the written consent of the other party or a court order authorizing the travel;
2. Dispose of, encumber, or transfer any marital property without the written consent of the other party, except reasonably using funds for the parties' expenses or for the personal and necessary expense of the children;
3. Threaten, harass or harm the other party; and
4. Distribute or share any confidential records, including but not limited to records from the Office of Children Services, obtained from the Office of the Child Custody Investigator except to the party, the party's attorney, or a retained expert.

III. IMMEDIATE FILING OF INFORMATION. (i) Each party must immediately file a Child Support Affidavit and verifying income information (paystubs and last year's tax return). See Civil Rule 90.3. (ii) With the first pleading or affidavit filed, each party must state whether the party knows of any proceeding or orders that could affect the current case including domestic violence actions, protective orders, child in need of aid proceedings, or adoptions and state the case number and the nature of the proceeding.

IV. ORDER FOR MANDATORY PARENT EDUCATION IN UNCONTESTED CASES:
Each parent in a case involving uncontested custody and uncontested visitation is required to complete mandatory parent education requirements. Each parent must complete an on-line internet class APPROVED by the 4th Judicial District Child Custody Investigator's Office. Contact (907) 452-9360 for a list of classes.

V. APPOINTMENT OF THE CHILD CUSTODY INVESTIGATOR'S OFFICE. The Child Custody Investigator's Office is appointed to this matter through Presiding Judge's Order No. 18.3. If contacted, each parent is ordered to comply with scheduling requests from the Child Custody Investigator's Office. The Child Custody Investigator's Office can be reached at (907) 452-9360.

VI. SCOPE AND SERVICE. This order is issued in the best interest of children whose parents may be in visitation and custody disputes either now or in the future so that the parents can learn how to assist children during this difficult period in their lives. This Injunction shall be effective upon receipt by a party or their attorney. This Injunction does not apply to cases involving motions to modify custody or visitation.

Dated: May 9, 2018

Bethany S. Harbison, Presiding Judge

Attorney for Plaintiff certifies that a copy of this order has been served on the Plaintiff and a copy of this order will be served on the Defendant with the complaint and summons.

Dated