

NOTICE OF RIGHTS
DURING COURT-ORDERED EVALUATION

Respondent's Name: _____

A petition was filed with the court alleging that you are mentally ill. The court ordered that you be held for an evaluation of your mental and physical condition by a mental health professional and a medical doctor. The evaluation will take place within 72 hours of your arrival at the evaluation facility. (The 72-hour period does not include Saturdays, Sundays, or legal holidays.) If you are not transported to the evaluation facility right away, the court will receive a status report explaining where you are, why there is a delay in transporting you, and what steps are being taken to make sure that it is necessary to keep you detained and that no less restrictive alternatives are available. The purpose of this document is to explain your rights to you.

A LAWYER HAS BEEN APPOINTED FOR YOU

You may also hire your own lawyer at your own expense.

COMMUNICATING WITH YOUR LAWYER AND YOUR GUARDIAN

You have the right to communicate immediately with your lawyer, your guardian (if you have one), your parent(s) (if you are a minor), and/or another adult of your choice at the government's expense. Your guardian will be advised of your rights. You can request that another adult of your choice be advised of your rights too.

WHILE WAITING FOR TRANSPORT

If you are not transported to the evaluation facility right away, you may call your lawyer, who can request a court hearing about your status.

TREATMENT AND COURT HEARING

You must be released after your examination and evaluation if the legal standard for holding you involuntarily for treatment is not met.

If the mental health professional or physician at the evaluation facility recommends that you stay in a hospital for treatment beyond the 72-hour evaluation period, you may voluntarily accept the recommended treatment. If you do not voluntarily accept the recommended treatment, you have the right to a court hearing. Once this hearing is scheduled, you will be given a new notice explaining your rights during the hearing.

The court hearing will be scheduled to take place no later than 72 hours after you arrive at the evaluation facility. If you are represented by a lawyer, you may waive the requirement that this hearing be held within the 72-hour time limit. However, the hearing must be set for no more than seven days after you arrive at the evaluation facility.

MEDICATION AND TREATMENT BEFORE YOUR HEARING

You have the right to be free of the effects of medication and other treatment, as much as possible, before your court hearing.¹

If you have any questions concerning these rights, you should call your lawyer, your parent or guardian, or an adult friend.
