(d) Compensation. A former justice or judge is entitled to receive compensation for pro tempore judicial service at the rate of $650 per day for any day during which the justice or judge served for four hours or more, and $325 per day for any day during which the justice or judge served less than four hours. as a waiver of any claim to these benefits. For an appointment of over 90 consecutive days, these leave benefits may be granted at the discretion of the administrative director with the concurrence of the chief justice.
