If there is an open case with CSSD, it will arrange appointments to have DNA samples collected for testing. If there is no open case, the parties will receive information about arranging the genetic testing themselves at a laboratory used by CSSD. The party who has the child in their care shall cooperate to have the child tested. Failure to comply with this order may result in sanctions, including a determination of paternity.

COSTS of TESTING

The  plaintiff  defendant will pay all costs associated with the testing procedure. If CSSD arranges the test, you must pay before appointments will be scheduled.

Both parties shall split the costs associated with the testing procedure. If CSSD arranges the test, you must pay before appointments will be scheduled.

If the current father is proven not to be the father, the mother shall reimburse the other party for these costs.

DNA TEST RESULT

The parties shall file with the court the genetic testing result within ten (10) days after receiving it. The test result must be accompanied by an affidavit that is prepared by a qualified person who administers the test and which addresses their qualifications and the validity of the testing procedures and results. Failure to comply with this order may result in sanctions, including a determination of paternity.

DENIED. There is not reasonable cause to order genetic testing.
